Douglas Olsen has been a freelance trumpeter for over 25 years, performing jazz and world music. He plays solo and/or lead trumpet with many of New England's top bands and has been a featured soloist with the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra, USAF Band of Liberty, the Smithsonian Masterworks Jazz Orchestra, the Big Apple Circus, and Little Anthony and the Imperials. Doug has recorded extensively on pop/rock, swing, jazz, and latin CD's, including Prozac Nation by Bellevue Cadillac (featured on the The Sopranos and Shallow Hal) and jazz vocalist Michelle Mailhot's A Happy Madness. In addition to being Director of Music in Medfield Public Schools for the last 24 years, Doug is an active clinician/guest artist, with appearances at MIT, Berklee, Harvard, UMass and others. Doug performs regularly with the John Almark Jazz Orchestra and with new projects "Latin Bash" and the Doug Olsen Qtet. Please visit douglasolsen.net.

Don Clough, originally from Rutland, VT, attended UMass-Amherst where he majored in Computer Systems Engineering and Minored in Music. He studied trumpet with the late Walter Chesnut as well as current professor Eric Berlin. Don graduated in 2004, and secured an engineer job with Dimension Data, which he still continues today.
Don's trumpet career includes past tours/performances with the Artie Shaw Orchestra and the Glenn Miller Orchestra, as well as local favorites such as the New England Jazz Ensemble, Hartford Jazz Orchestra, Beantown Swing Orchestra, Jeff Holmes Big Band, Amherst Jazz Orchestra, among many others. Don also can be found taking care of his 6 year old son and 4 year old daughter with his wife, UMass trombone alumna ('06) Meg Clough.

UMass Associate Professor Eric Berlin, Yamaha Performing Artist, is Principal Trumpet of the Albany Symphony Orchestra, Associate Principal of the Colorado Music Festival Orchestra, a member of the Boston Modern Orchestra Project and the Empire Brass Quintet. He has also performed with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, New York Philharmonic and Los Angeles Philharmonic. Stephen Paulus's Concerto for Two Trumpets on his disc Fantastique of commissioned works with the UMass Wind Ensemble received a Grammy nomination, and the Naxos CD with his recording of George Tsontakis's True Colors for Trumpet & Orchestra, commissioned for Berlin by the ASO, was one of National Public Radio's Top 10 Classical Albums of 2017.
